

BLUE SILICON VALLEY EMERGES FROM THE SERENGETI OF THE SEA

Public & private perspectives on ideas & innovation from the marine science community in Monterey Bay.

Moderators and Opening Remarks

Zdenka Willis, U.S. IOOS & Tony Livoti, MBITA

Invited Panelists:

Rick Spinrad, Chief Scientist, NOAA

Patrick Kinney, founder and president of Kinnetic Labs

Paul Roberts, West Coast Area Manager of Sea
Engineering, Inc.

Chris Scholin, CEO, Monterey Bay Aquarium Research Institute

Brad Barbeau, Associate Professor, CSUMB College of Business; Executive Director, The Institute for Innovation and Economic Development

Jenn Patterson, Information Manager, CeNCOOS

Wednesday September 21, 10:30 - 11:50 a.m.
Ferrante Bay Room (Marriott)

OCEAN INNOVATION & PARTNERSHIPS SHOWCASE

A lively discussion to immerse you in the most intriguing and promising new advancements in ocean observing worldwide!

Moderators & Opening Remarks:

Carl Gouldman, U.S. IOOS & Kevin Hardy, Global Ocean Design

- The Nanolander
Kevin Hardy, Global Ocean Design
- The Discovery Yacht Program
Julienne Beblo, Associate Director of Programs, Sea Keepers
- Glider Technology for College Curricula
Oscar Schofield, Distinguished Professor and Department Chair, Department of Marine and Coastal Sciences, Rutgers
- Deep Sea Submersibles
Chris Roper, SAAB Seaeye
- Exploration Technologies
Alan Leonardi, Director, NOAA Office of Ocean Exploration and Research
- Satellite Automated Identification System (S-AIS) Technology
Donna Kocak, Harris Corporation
- Autonomous Systems for Improved Ocean Sampling
Ralf Bachmayer, Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, Memorial University of Newfoundland
- Handheld CTD and Other Small Sensors
Richard Butler, Xylem Analytics

Wednesday Sept. 21, 1:15pm – 3:00pm · Ferrante Bay Room (Marriott)

